

What does the future hold for prostate cancers?

13 March 2019

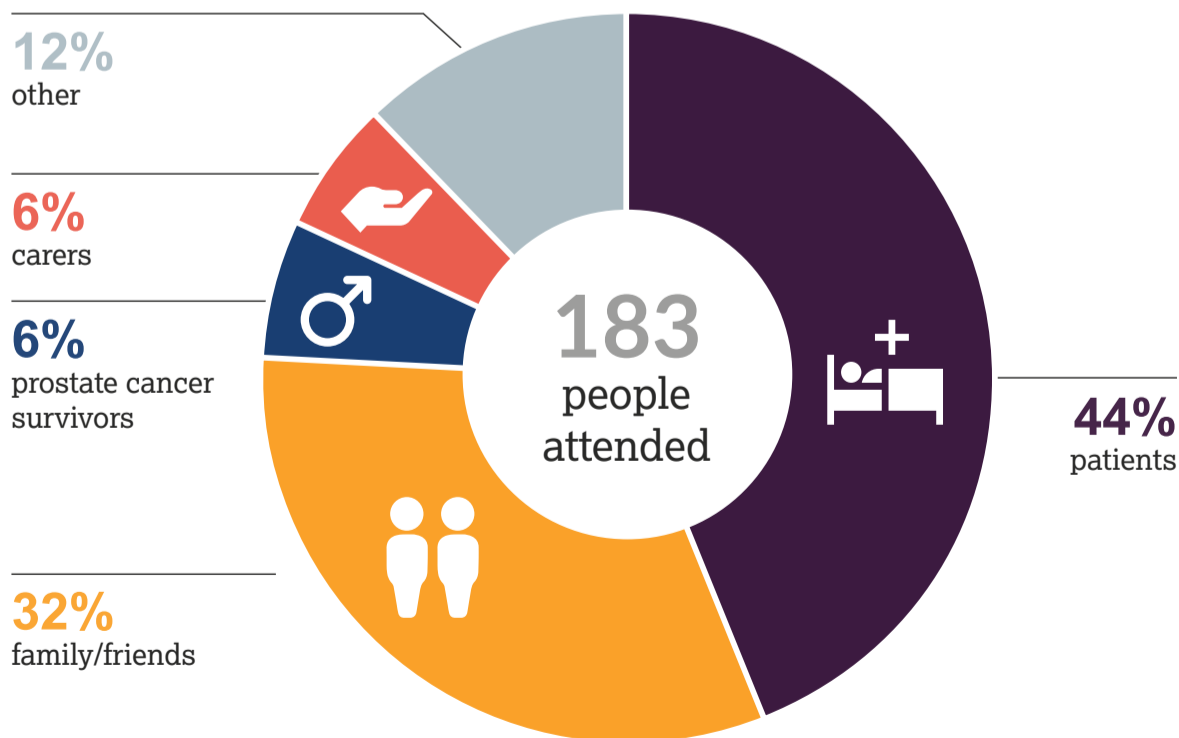

8
presentations

7
charity and
information stalls

87%
rated event either
excellent or very good

93%
attendees found the event
helpful and interesting

“Pitched just right for people with cancer – not too technical and in a simple language.”

“Informative and exciting, especially future treatments and genetics research.”

“Gave me much needed background info and food for thought on any treatments I might need.”